New Course	HUSV 135	Ethics for Human Services Professionals (Lec 3) Rationale: This course encourages and reinforces ethical behavior on the parts of students aspiring to become human services professionals. Currently, ethics topics are covered briefly in numerous HUSV courses, but there is not a course exclusively about ethics. Demand: Suggestions by part-time faculty and requests from students and the ongoing need for human services professionals to conduct themselves ethically.	Attachments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Justification • Minutes of the meeting • Articles supporting the need for the course Does the course need to be repeatable? Textbook currency: 1999. Is it going to be part of a major? The texts are the only ones that are currently available. Ethics codes don't change much over time, and neither does good writing, so the ages of the texts aren't critical. Neither course needs to be repeatable. I plan to include both courses within certificates. That proposal awaits approval of the courses.
New Course	HUSV 145	Effective Writing for Human Services (Lec 3) Rationale: Improves writing/documentation skills needed in the workplace by human services certificate/degree completers. Demand: A strong recommendation was received at the most recent human services Advisory Committee meeting to create course work designed to improve writing / documentation skills of the certificate / degree recipients.
